

GANDHI DIES AT HANDS OF ASSASSIN WHILE EN ROUTE TO EVENING PRAYERS; FOLLOWERS SHOCKED BY VIOLENT END

Eyewitness States Young Man Fired Four Revolver Shots at Point-Blank Range—Great, Silent Crowd Gathers Immediately Outside Birla House and Is Quickly Informed Wounds Are Fatal.

By International News Service

NEW DELHI, Jan. 30—Mohandas K. Gandhi, wizened little spiritual leader of millions of Hindus in India who constantly preached non-violence, died today, ironically, at the hand of an assassin who pumped four bullets into his body at point blank range.

The 78-year-old Gandhi was slain as he was enroute to his usual evening prayer meeting. His followers were shocked by the violent end which came to a man who several times had been near death's door through lengthy fasting in his life-long campaign to bring peace to his people.

(The assassination of Gandhi profoundly shocked London where observers expressed fear that his slaying may precipitate communal outbreaks tantamount to civil war.)

The shooting occurred as Gandhi walked to the prayer ground adjacent to Birla House where he lived and where he conducted his last fast earlier this month to foster peace between India and Pakistan.

An eyewitness to the shooting said:

"A young man fired four revolver shots at point blank range.

"Gandhi collapsed in a pool of blood and was carried into Birla House."

A great silent crowd gathered outside Birla House immediately on learning the news of the outrage.

A member of Gandhi's entourage came out of Birla House at 5:56 p. m. New Delhi time and announced: "Bapu (Father) is finished."

The shooting had occurred approximately at 5 p. m.

When he first was rushed into Birla House it was said he was injured seriously. Shortly thereafter it was confirmed that he was dead.

India House, seat of the government, then announced officially that Gandhi had been assassinated.

A BBC correspondent was on the scene when Gandhi was attacked.

"I was about 10 yards away from Gandhi when the shots were fired," he said.

"About 400 to 500 men, women and children went openly and beat their breasts."

"A heavily set man was arrested. He had blood on his clothes, indicating he was wounded by the crowd."

Morrisville Man's Death Caused by Excessive Cold

MORRISVILLE, Jan. 30—An aged man, believed to be about 72 years old, was found dead in bed at his home here this morning.

The victim, John Veres, South Pennsylvania avenue, Morrisville, R. D., died of acute cardiac dilatation, caused by the excessive cold, according to Bucks County Coroner J. Alfred Rigby. There was no fire in the house, police report.

Feeling that something was wrong when he called at 7:50 this morning to deliver milk, Leon Burton, Fallsington dealer, notified Morrisville police when he noticed that milk delivered previously had not been taken in. Officer Harry Tomlinson entered the house and found Veres dead in bed.

The coroner was called and the body of Veres was removed to the Murphy funeral home, here.

Having come to this country from Hungary, Veres has no known relatives. He resided alone.

A SUMMARY OF THE NEWS

President Truman demanded yesterday that Congress approve the full four-year European Recovery program and appropriate the entire $6,800,000,000 he requested for the first 15 months or reject the Marshall Plan.

House Democrats sought in vain last night to agree on a substitute for the Knutson tax-reduction bill that would halt a rising defection among their party members.

The President told Congress that voluntary measures were unworkable and asked authority to order a 23% cut in the use of grain for liquor until October 31st. Although present controls expire tomorrow, early action seemed unlikely. Rationing measures for meat are being considered, President Truman said, but to be effective price control must come first. The situation is becoming increasingly acute, he declared.

This country's "vital interest" extends from Gibraltar to the Indian Ocean, Defense Secretary Forrestal told a Senate committee, and it is essential to have ready access to Middle East oil. In Iraq, Mohammed el-Sadr formed a new Cabinet to replace that of Saleh Jabr, who signed an unpopular treaty with Britain.

Washington is rechecking the status of "subversive" groups and schools, contributions to which have been deductible for income-tax purposes.

Dr. Einstein replied to four Soviet scientists who had criticized his support of "world government" by reminding them that Russia's own acts had made it difficult for her friends here.

At Lake Success, Deputy Foreign Minister Gromyko made it clear that Russia would not consider international control until all existing atomic-bomb stockpiles had been destroyed and a convention outlawing that weapon put into effect.

The United Nations Palestine Commission unanimously voted to start at once to help form a Jewish militia and held itself ready to assist Arabs in a similar move.

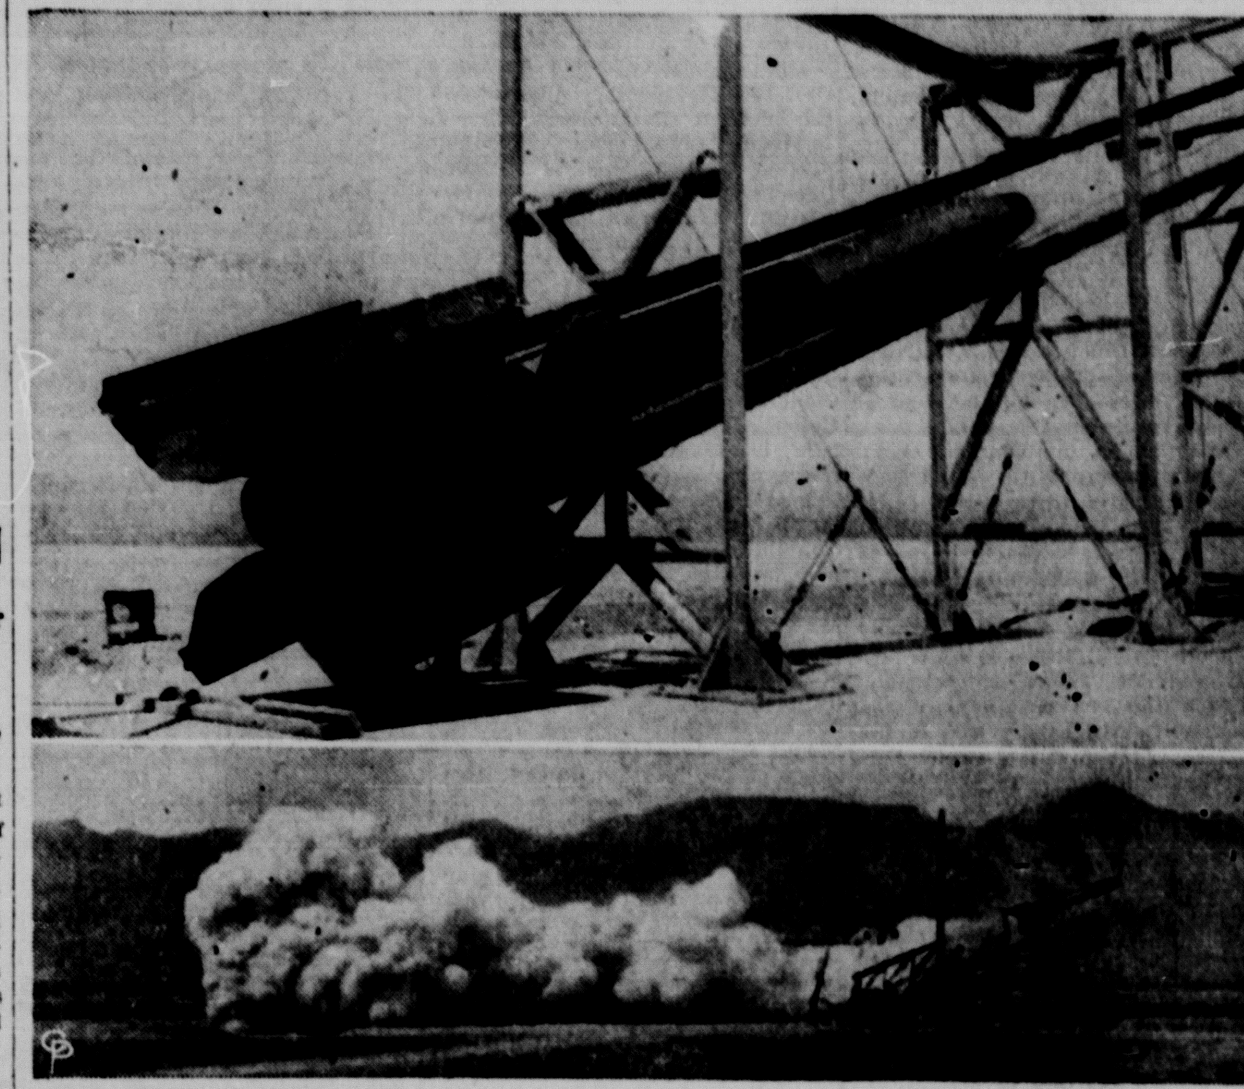

The French Assembly, 320 to 288, reversed its Finance Committee and approved withdrawal from circulation of all 5,000-franc bank notes.

The Schuman Cabinet had ordered this withdrawal by decree earlier. The Assembly then approved the entire first article of the Government's monetary plan.

Britain's Labor party suffered its first defeat when a Conservative narrowly won a by-election in Glasgow.

President Pettrillo of the musicians' union agreed to end on Sunday the ban against duplicating musical programs on FM radio stations. Threat of a strike against the four networks tomorrow was removed by extending the present contract 60 days.

LARGEST RAM JET IN FIRST SUPERSONIC TESTS

LARGEST SUPERSONIC RAM jet engine ever flown is shown in a launching rack (top) before it took off on its first test flight at Inyokern, Cal. A cloud of smoke is left in its wake (bottom) and the engine, known as the "flying stovepipe," heads skyward. The Navy announced that it attained a speed far in the supersonic range. It delivered, pound for pound of engine weight, about 25 times the power available from the best reciprocating engines. Before the ram jet could operate efficiently it had to be boosted to supersonic speed by a rocket which then dropped off, leaving the "stovepipe" shooting through space. Official U. S. Navy photo. FIRE CAUSES $40,000 DAMAGE TO AN ENGINE

Electric Locomotive Blaze Starts in Main Panel of Switchboard

TIES UP TRACK THREE

EDDINGTON, Jan. 30—Damage estimated by the train crew at $40,000 was caused when electric locomotive No. 4762 of the Pennsylvania Railroad caught fire while west-bound on track three just west of the bridge carrying the roadway over the tracks, here.

Firemen from three companies used their complete supply of CO₂, eight bottles in all, in battling the blaze, and so intense did the heat become that a hole was melted in the roof of the cab.

Traffic was tied up on track three for an hour.

The fire is said to have started in the main panel of the switchboard as the engine was proceeding west, hauling 106 cars of freight, at 2:30. The engine was a relief engine, the first one having broken down at a point in New Jersey. Another engine was sent on from Philadelphia to take the train of cars into that city.

Firemen from Union and No. 1 Companies, Cornwells Heights; also Eddington Company, responded to the alarm.

"PHILLIES" FINED $500 FOR SIGNING

EARL WAGNER, A BRISTOL HIGH STAR, BEFORE HIS CLASS IS GRADUATED

(By International News Service) PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 30—The Philadelphia "Phillies" officially admitted today the club "made a mistake" in signing Earl Wagner, 19-year-old pitching star of Bristol High School. The "Phillies" were fined $500 by Baseball Commissioner A. B. Chandler yesterday for violating the league rule against signing a schoolboy before his class is graduated.

Wagner, whose record shows four no-hit games for Bristol, had been assigned by the Bluejays to the Bradford farm team in the Pony League. "We were wrong," General Manager Herb Pennock said. "The boy had stopped school and we thought he had finished, but his class had not graduated. He is a mighty fine prospect and we wish him good luck."

Chandler's ruling also prevents the "Phillies" from signing the six-foot, 170-pound right-hander.

It was stated at the Bristol high school this morning that Wagner entered the Bristol high school in the 10th grade from Bristol township public school, and took the academic course. He was 18 years old, and left school when a student in the 11th grade October 8th, 1946.

HIGHWAY ALLOCATIONS ARE NOW INCREASED

State's Municipalities Benefit by Money From the Motor Fund

BORO'S, $391 PER MILE

HARRISBURG, Jan. 30—Municipal subdivisions of Pennsylvania will receive an increased amount during the year from the Motor Fund for street construction and maintenance.

Employees in the Department of Highways are busy preparing requisitions for the first quarterly payment due March 1 under the appropriation act approved last year by Governor Duff for the years 1948 and 1949.

An appropriation of $29,000,000 for the two-year period was made by the 1947 session of the General Assembly. This money is paid from the Motor Fund to the local governmental units of the Commonwealth to be used for construction and maintenance of roads and streets within the municipal limits. The appropriation from the Motor Fund for the present two-year period is $3,000,000 more than was granted for the years 1946 and 1947.

Cities, boroughs and first-class townships will receive $391.53 for each mile of street during this year. In 1947 the amount paid to this group of municipal subdivisions was $335.25 a mile. There are 5558.46 miles of city streets, 5,579.33 miles of borough streets and 1641.74 miles of first-class townships.

STILL IN THE FAMILY

At first glance, Britain's Royal Navy may appear to have given new ammunition to those who like to snipe at the battleship as a dead duck in modern war. But the news that the British will scrap four battleships and the battle cruiser Renown has a background that should prevent the critics from starting to shoot without an official signal to commence firing.

In the first place, most of these ships are of World War I vintage, and even those completed or reconstructed in the late twenties are outmoded. It would be better to build new ones than to do any further remodeling.

Secondly, Britain still has five modern battleships and four older ones, more than any other nation except the friendly United States, whose seapower is overwhelmingly superior to that of all the rest of the world put together.

And finally, England needs the 163,000 tons of steel in those ships, which amounts to about four days' output of Britain's steel producers.

So the Royal Navy is simply cleaning house, and tossing useful junk into the nation's battle for economic survival. This does not mean that the battleship has no role in modern war. The reverse is true, as air admirals feared in the last war, when fast battleships, with their tremendous firepower, were an integral part of every big carrier task force.

The same will be true if there ever is another war. Naval air power will be a vital weapon for early defense and swift retaliation. Navy planes operate from carriers, which cannot carry the defensive armament that battleships can furnish for their protection.

In future war, only battleships, or their modern counterparts, will be able to carry the incredible mass of detection gear, fire control equipment, and defensive weapons that fleets will need, particularly when the fighting comes close, or when guided missiles penetrate the protecting aircraft screen.

In the unknown future of scientific warfare, carriers may loom as queens of the sea, but battleships have not yet been banished from the royal family.

Returned diplomat says he never saw a horse all the time he was in England. What he means is a whole horse, moving under its own power.

Scientists say they have heard music from the sun. Petrillo can now be expected to demand standby musician, or to start picketing Old Sol.

One nice thing about this period of the year is that there are other tunes on the radio besides "Jingle Bells."

It will cost $40,000,000,000 to run the federal government next year. The old-fashioned watchdog of the Treasury must be on relief.

Presents Sketch on Life of Renowned WCTU Leader

The Women's Christian Temperance Union held its monthly meeting in Zion Lutheran parish house, Wednesday evening. A covered dish supper was enjoyed, under chairmanship of Mrs. Elizabeth West.

The program was in the hands of Miss Virginia Romanello, who presented a sketch of the life of Mrs. Lillian M. N. Stevens, who became leader of the World's Women's Christian Temperance Union upon the death of Miss Frances Willard. In memory of this leader, the Lillian Stevens Legislative Fund is maintained in Washington, D. C., providing the WCTU with means to promote many bills for public welfare.

Miss Romanello read an excerpt from an article appearing in a recent publication, as follows: "The contrast between the amount of liquor consumed in the District of Columbia and other States in the Union, gives the District the penitential, Washington leading all other States in its consumption of liquors. Prince Edward Island, in Canada, on the other hand, has had Prohibition since 1906, and as a result has had only one divorce in 60 years, and since 1917 not one case of assault on wife, desertion of children, or contributing to the delinquency of a child. There are no gamblers, no commercialized vice, no real crime problems and no penitentiary. There are only 13 policemen for 50,000 people, and not an execution in 40 years. Its per capita savings is greater than any other Canadian province, and for its size has more railways, more post offices, and more churches than any other province."

STILL IN THE FAMILY

At first glance, Britain's Royal Navy may appear to have given new ammunition to those who like to snipe at the battleship as a dead duck in modern war. But the news that the British will scrap four battleships and the battle cruiser Renown has a background that should prevent the critics from starting to shoot without an official signal to commence firing.

In the first place, most of these ships are of World War I vintage, and even those completed or reconstructed in the late twenties are outmoded. It would be better to build new ones than to do any further remodeling.

Secondly, Britain still has five modern battleships and four older ones, more than any other nation except the friendly United States, whose seapower is overwhelmingly superior to that of all the rest of the world put together.

And finally, England needs the 163,000 tons of steel in those ships, which amounts to about four days' output of Britain's steel producers.

So the Royal Navy is simply cleaning house, and tossing useful junk into the nation's battle for economic survival. This does not mean that the battleship has no role in modern war. The reverse is true, as air admirals feared in the last war, when fast battleships, with their tremendous firepower, were an integral part of every big carrier task force.

The same will be true if there ever is another war. Naval air power will be a vital weapon for early defense and swift retaliation. Navy planes operate from carriers, which cannot carry the defensive armament that battleships can furnish for their protection.

In future war, only battleships, or their modern counterparts, will be able to carry the incredible mass of detection gear, fire control equipment, and defensive weapons that fleets will need, particularly when the fighting comes close, or when guided missiles penetrate the protecting aircraft screen.

In the unknown future of scientific warfare, carriers may loom as queens of the sea, but battleships have not yet been banished from the royal family.

Returned diplomat says he never saw a horse all the time he was in England. What he means is a whole horse, moving under its own power.

Scientists say they have heard music from the sun. Petrillo can now be expected to demand standby musician, or to start picketing Old Sol.

One nice thing about this period of the year is that there are other tunes on the radio besides "Jingle Bells."

It will cost $40,000,000,000 to run the federal government next year. The old-fashioned watchdog of the Treasury must be on relief.

Presents Sketch on Life of Renowned WCTU Leader

The Women's Christian Temperance Union held its monthly meeting in Zion Lutheran parish house, Wednesday evening. A covered dish supper was enjoyed, under chairmanship of Mrs. Elizabeth West.

The program was in the hands of Miss Virginia Romanella, who presented a sketch of the life of Mrs. Lillian M. N. Stevens, who became m. the Rev. Mr. Simons will also speak to the Church School pupils; Youth Fellowship, seven p. m.; evening service, 7:45.

Miss Romanella read an excerpt from an article appearing in a recent publication, as follows: "The contrast between the amount of liquor consumed in the District of Columbia and other States in the Union, gives the District the penance, Washington leading all other States in its consumption of liquors. Prince Edward Island, in Canada, on the other hand, has had prohibition since 1906, and as a result has had only one divorce in 60 years, and since 1917 not one case of assault on wife, desertion of children, or contributing to the delinquency of a child. There are no gamblers, no commercialized vice, no real crime problems and no penitentiary. There are only 13 policemen for 90,000 people, and not an execution in 40 years. Its per capita savings is greater than any other Canadian province, and for its size has more railways, more post offices, and more churches than any other province."

the building a busy community center throughout the year. The club will also offer financial aid for worthy projects.

Because of the cold weather, attendance at the combination auction on the property of the Rice brothers, near Solebury, Tuesday, was limited to about 300 persons, who witnessed the disposal of a good supply of poultry, the sale of which amounted to $203.37. The demand in general was good, especially for roasting chickens, which were rather scarce. Proceeds of the entire sale were $5264.47.

In the livestock department only eight cows, a heifer and 18 calves were sold. No sheep, lambs and goats were offered. Cows ranged in price from $150 to $322.50, and the lone heifer sold went to the high bidder for $120. Calves sold for $7.75 to $19.25 each and for 24 to 34 cents a pound.

SPORTSMEN'S

BRIEFS

BY JOE ELBERSON

At the helm... here are the fellows who will (on various committees) steer the activities of the Bristol Fish & Game Protective Association during 1948:

Heading the important Game Committee is John C. Johnson, former secretary, former treasurer and former president of the Association. On his committee are the following members: C. Donald Moyer, Harvey Cochran, Frank Richardson, Charles Elliott and Nunzio Rubino, all of Bristol; John Baker, Edgely; Howard Black, Hulmeville; Edward Dyer, Cornwells Heights; and William Bossler, Newportville.

Two local anglers, Kenneth Brando and Oliver Hobbs, will serve as co-chairmen of the Fish Committee. Other members include: Robert McFarland, Arnold North, Joseph Smith, Norman Morris, Morris Gelman, and J. Russell Johnson, all of Bristol; and Edward Oberholzer and James R. Chichester, Jr., Edgely.

Renamed to serve as co-chairmen of the Trap Committee are the two men who did such a fine job last year. They are Franklin Everitt and Raymond Elbersson. Also on this committee are: Glen Cobleigh, Cornwells Heights; Ray Robinson, Newportville; and F. R. Davies, J. S. Lynn, Ralph Ratcliffe, Richard DiFirma, Pete Nepa, Eugene McGlynn and Joseph Lombardo, all of Bristol.

Heading the Pistol and Rifle Section as executive officer is Homer Hobbs. Sidney Popkin is the recording secretary of this section, and George Walker is the chief instructor. Renamed as technical advisors are two prominent law enforcement officers, Chief of Bristol Police, L. H. Ford J. Jones, and Bucks County Detective, Antonio Russo.

To foster the growth of an increasing interest in archery a special Archery Committee has been named. On this committee are: Joseph Stevens, chairman; Jack Austin and Lester D. Thorne.

Likewise, so that the interests of those members of the Association who are especially interested in dogs and field trial work can be cultivated, a special Field Trial Committee has been set up. Heading this committee is Edward Bonfrancesco. Harry Oliver, Peter Antonelli and Nunzio Rubino are the other members of this committee.

Renamed to the head of a committee that has an extremely important job to do during the quarterly meetings is Harry Bossler, Refreshment Committee chairman. Harry has probably served as long as chairman of this committee as any other chairman ever to head any committee in the Association. On his committee are: LeRoy Reynolds, Peter W. Cattani, Edward Rounsavill, Kenneth Brown, Howard Asay, Jr., and John B. Conca.

So that those members who are interested in tournament casting (Fly, Plug and Salt Water) can promote their interests a special Tournament Casting Committee has been named. Heading this committee is Oliver Hobbs, amateur casting champ of national repute. On the committee also are: Arnold North, George Efling and Joseph Smith, all of Bristol; and William Durr, Cornwells Heights.

Delegates to the Bucks County Federation of Sportsmen's Clubs, of which the Bristol club has been an active member, are: Frank Murphy, John C. Johnson and Harry Bossler. The alternate delegates are: Albert Rodgers, James R. Chichester, Sr., and J. H. Elbersson. Note: Federation meets at Doylestown on February 2nd.

Prediction: If the above committees get half the support and encouragement they must have from the other 500 members of the Bristol Fish & Game Protective Association, and which they have every right to expect, then the Bristol Club and each one of its members should enjoy another good year.

KEYSTONERS SCORE 30 FIELD GOALS IN GAME HERE

Scoring a total of 30 field goals, the Keystoneers maintained a tight grip on second place in the Bristol Youth League by thumping the Celtics, 62-34, last night on the Mutual Aid floor.

Leaders of the field goal attack on the Celtics were Tommy Monteverino and "Joie" Rago who had nine each. "Hank" Kilian was high for the Celtics with 10 points.

The Others are one-half game away from the league-leading Franklin A. C. team.

Hibernians Drop Five-Point Verdict

The Hibernians continued to lose in the Bristol Youth League by dropping a five-point verdict to the Second Ward Boys' Club, 37-32, last night on the Mutual Aid court.

The Hibos made a fine spurt in the third quarter to score 11 points while holding the ultimate winners to but a single field goal by Costan-

WARRIORS DROP GAME TO CAMDEN BY SINGLE POINT

In one of the most exciting games seen here in years, the Bristol High basketballers dropped a close 38-37 decision to Camden Catholic High last night on the home floor.

The see-saw battle was rough from start to finish with plenty of fouling. The boys played more the professional type of basketball than school ball. Camden Catholic was the more guilty in committing fouls with the Warriors getting 23 shots from the foul line. But the Bristolians had a "night off" and missed many of these shots, especially towards the finish of the game when fouls would have paid off the dividends.

It was "Jimmy" Roberts' two foul conversions that won the game for Catholic with 23 seconds left to play. Roberts was headed for the basketball when "Jim" Sottile fouled him. Camden Catholic was behind at the time, 37-38, but Roberts put in both shots and Catholic went in front, 38-37, a lead which they kept for the remainder of the game.

With 12 seconds left to play, Bristol had the ball out of bounds but the throw-in was muffed by a Warrior player and before the ball could be recovered and shot, the game was over. Referee Erb failed to hear the sound of the horn, ending the game and called a foul on Barr, of Camden Catholic, but a check-up with the timekeeper revealed that the foul was committed after the game was over.

Sottile was high for Bristol with 16 points and also proved the best foul shooter with four out of four. Johnny Pindar was off and missed several fielders. His foul-shooting was also costly as he made but four out of nine attempts. "Joe" Barr was high for Camden Catholic with 11 points.

Bristol had the lead in the early part of the game when Marshall scored a field goal, Sottile, two, and Pindar made a foul while Barr and Roberts scored five points for Camden. Joe Elliott tied it at 7-7 but a fast pass, Marshall to Sottile gave Bristol another score but Joe Roberts again knotted the count for Camden to close the quarter.

Sottile and Roberts scored for their teams to make the score 11-11 and Don De Long put the Warriors in front with a tap-in. But Shikatan tied it with a double-decker. Marshall's foul put Bristol ahead, 14-13 and Pindar converted a shot to make it 15-13. But Elliott had a one-handed shot and deadlocked the score, 15-15. A "sleeper," Sottile to Pindar, put Coach Bloom's lads ahead but again the score was tied when Barr shot in a long one. Field goals by Barr and Feigenbutz put Camden Catholic four points in front at the half, 21-17.

Barr had a foul conversion to

SPORTSMEN'S BRIEFS

BY JOE ELBERSON

At the helm . . . here are the fellows who will (on various committees) steer the activities of the Bristol Fish & Game Protective Association during 1948.

Heading the important Game Committee is John C. Johnson, former secretary, former treasurer and former president of the Association. On his committee are the following members: C. Donald Moyer, Harvey Cochran, Frank Richardson, Charles Elliott and Nunzio Rubino, all of Bristol; John Baker, Edgely; Howard Black, Hulmeville; Edward Dyer, Cornwells Heights; and William Bossler, Newportville.

Two local anglers, Kenneth Brandau and Oliver Hobbs, will serve as co-chairmen of the Fish Committee. Other members include: Robert McFarland, Arnold North, Joseph Smith, Norman Morris, Morris Gelman, and J. Russell Johnson, all of Bristol; and Edward Oberholzer and James R. Chickester, Jr., Edgely.

Renamed to serve as co-chairmen of the Trap Committee are the two men who did such a fine job last year. They are Franklin Everitt and Raymond Elbersson. Also on this committee are: Glen Cobleigh, Cornwells Heights; Ray Robinson, Newportville; and F. R. Davies, J. S. Lynn, Ralph Ratcliffe, Richard DiFrma, Pete Nepa, Eugene McGlynn and Joseph Lombardo, all of Bristol.

Heading the Pistol and Rifle Section as executive officer is Homer Hobbs. Sidney Popkin is the recording secretary of this section, and George Walker is the chief instructor. Renamed as technical advisors are two prominent law enforcement officers, Chief of Bristol Police, Luford J. Jones, and Bucks County Detective, Antonio Russo.

To foster the growth of an increasing interest in archery a special Archery Committee has been named. On this committee are: Joseph Stevens, chairman; Jack Austin and Lester D. Thorne.

Likewise, so that the interests of those members of the Association who are especially interested in dogs and field trial work can be cultivated, a special Field Trial Committee has been set up. Heading this committee is Edward Bonfrancesco. Harry Oliver, Peter Antonelli and Nunzio Rubino are the other members of this committee.

Renamed to the head of a committee that has an extremely important job to do during the quarterly meetings is Harry Bossler, Refreshment Committee chairman. Harry has probably served as long as chairman of this committee as any other chairman ever to head any committee in the Association. On his committee are: LeRoy Reynolds, Peter W. Cattani, Edward Rounsavill, Kenneth Brown, Howard Assay, Jr., and John B. Conca.

So that those members who are interested in tournament casting (Fly, Plug and Salt Water) can promote their interests a special Tournament Casting Committee has been named. Heading this committee is Oliver Hobbs, amateur casting champ of national repute. On the committee also are: Arnold North, George Esting and Joseph Smith, all of Bristol; and William Durr, Cornwells Heights.

Delegates to the Bucks County Federation of Sportsmen's Clubs, of which the Bristol club has been an active member, are: Frank Murphy, John C. Johnson and Harry Bossler. The alternate delegates are: Albert Rogers, James R. Chickester, Sr., and J. H. Elbersson. Note: Federation meets at Doylestown on February 2nd.

Prediction: If the above committees get half the support and encouragement they must have from the other 500 members of the Bristol Fish & Game Protective Association, and which they have every right to expect, then the Bristol Club and each one of its members should enjoy another good year.

KEYSTONERS SCORE 30 FIELD GOALS IN GAME HERE

Scoring a total of 30 field goals, the Keystoneers maintained a tight grip on second place in the Bristol Youth League by thumping the Celtics, 62-34, last night on the Mutual Aid floor.

Leaders of the field goal attack on the Celtics were Tommy Montevino and "Joie" Hago who had nine each. "Hank" Killian was high for the Celtics with 10 points.

The Oilers are one-half game away from the league-leading Franklin A. C. team.

Hibernians Drop Five-Point Verdict

The Hibernians continued to lose in the Bristol Youth League by dropping a five-point verdict to the Second Ward Boys' Club, 37-32, last night on the Mutual Aid court.

The Hibos made a fine start in the third quarter to score 11 points while holding the ultimate winners to but a single field goal by Costan-

WARRIORS DROP GAME TO CAMDEN BY SINGLE POINT

In one of the most exciting games seen here in years, the Bristol High basketballers dropped a close 38-37 decision to Camden Catholic High last night on the home floor.

The see-saw battle was rough from start to finish with plenty of fouling. The boys played more the professional type of basketball than school ball. Camden Catholic was the more guilty in committing fouls with the Warriors getting 23 shots from the foul line. But the Bristolians had a "night off" and missed many of these shots, especially towards the finish of the game when fouls would have paid off the dividends.

It was "Jimmy" Roberts' two foul conversions that won the game for Catholic with 23 seconds left to play. Roberts was headed for the basketball when "Jim" Sottile fouled him. Camden Catholic was behind at the time, 37-38, but Roberts put in both shots and Catholic went in front, 38-37, a lead which they kept for the remainder of the game.

With 12 seconds left to play, Bristol had the ball out of bounds but the throw-in was muffed by a Warrior player and before the ball could be recovered and shot, the game was over. Referee Erb failed to hear the sound of the horn, ending the game and called a foul on Barr, of Camden Catholic, but a check-up with the timekeeper revealed that the foul was committed after the game was over.

Sottile was high for Bristol with 16 points and also proved the best foul shooter with four out of four. Johnny Pindar was off and missed several fielders. His foul-shooting was also costly as he made but four out of nine attempts. "Joe" Barr was high for Camden Catholic with 11 points.

Bristol had the lead in the early part of the game when Marshall scored a field goal. Sottile, two, and Pindar made a foul while Barr and Roberts scored five points for Camden. Joe Elliott tied it at 7-7 but a fast pass, Marshall to Sottile gave Bristol another score but Joe Roberts again knotted the count for Camden to close the quarter.

start the third period but Pindar had a double-decker and foul to give Bristol three points and when Val Bielecki dribbled the entire length of the floor to slit the net, the score was again evened at 22-22. Pindar scored from the side and Bristol went ahead and foul conversions by Koncal and Sottile put the Warriors four points to the good but the visitors scored three points before the close of the period to shave the lead to 26-25.

Marshall to Sottile on a fine pass increased Bristol's lead but Feigenbutz tallied for Camden and Pindar retallied for the Warriors. "Jim" Murray scored two field goals in succession for the invaders which put them in the lead, 31-30. A pass from Marshall to Morrell caught Camden napping and netted a field goal, Bristol again stepping in front, 32-31, with three minutes left to play. Barr and Feigenbutz scored for Camden and they had a three-point lead, 35-32, and when Shikatan converted a foul, it appeared to be certain for Bristol but Sottile made two fouls and then scored on a throw-in to tie the count, 36-36. Morrell dropped in a gift shot to again give Bristol the lead but Murray's pair of fouls decided the tilt.
